

Veranda Pointe aux Biches Hotel

Barefoot bliss !

Living on holiday "barefoot" as if shipwrecked on a desert island, is what this hotel invites you to do, where everything is an invitation to communion with the unspoiled tropical surroundings and outdoor life. In a relaxed and lively ambiance, the Veranda Pointe aux Biches Hotel invites you to come as a couple or with friends or the whole family, the perfect setting to establish your place in the sun and enjoy the simple pleasures of sleeping, playing, dreaming, reading... and enjoying the delights of the fragrant cuisine of the islands.

The architecture and rustic natural charm is subtly integrated with the outdoor spaces with a deck that crowns the bar and restaurant, fine golden sand dotted sprinkled throughout the hotel compound and lush vegetation giving a wonderfully calm setting.

The Veranda Pointe aux Biches Hotel, located a few kilometres from the lively resort of Grand Bay, has 115 rooms including 44 'Family' rooms with separate bedroom for children and 30 'Privilege' rooms, located in the 'Sandy Lane' section which is a new more intimate wing for couples with its own swimming pool, a beach restaurant with a gourmet menu in the evenings and the bar facing the ocean.

Veranda Pointe aux Biches also features a Seven Colours Wellness Lounge on the beach and a kids club.

Mauritius is situated 3000 kilometres to the east of the African continent. The diversity of its rich lands extends over 1865km². Its superb 160 kilometres coastline, multi-coloured coral reefs, and picturesque mountains make it the gem of the Indian Ocean.

With average temperatures of 22°C in winter and 31°C in summer, the coastal regions are the ideal destinations for holidays all year round.

The "rainbow" population of approximately 1.3 million consists of Indo-Mauritians, African-Mauritians, Sino-Mauritians and Mauritians with a European background or from mixed origins.
